Saturday evening we had dinner at the Brickyard Café in Bowling Green. In 1995, the owners of the Brickyard Café left war-torn Yugoslavia to start a new life in the United States. After purchasing the house in 1997, Jake and Robert spent a year renovating the building themselves. They have a unique menu and the food was delicious.

On Sunday, we head out to the Corvette museum. Who led the way....of course, the corvettes. Gosh!!!! we felt special; there were special parking spaces for corvettes only. There is something for everyone at the museum. There is a KidZone and, of course, there is a lot to see for the BIG KIDS. We saw the cars that were swallowed by the big 'hole'.

THE CORVETTE EXPERIENCE

The weekend may have been cool but it didn't stop some of us from driving our corvettes and the antique cars to Bowling Green to tour the Corvette Museum. The Kubiks, the Simpsons and Bob Gresham drove their corvettes and although the weather was unpredictable it turned out to be a nice weekend. We had eight cars on the trip.

The route was fantastic. The sun came out; we saw beautiful spring flowers and trees blooming and we had a short break at Shaker Town. We had lunch at Longhunters Coffee and Tea Company in Greensburg, Ky. The restaurant is in a renovated hardware store on the town square and offers handcrafted eats and specialty drinks with nervous and ready to get his new corvette. After touring the museum, we ate lunch in their 50's café.

All in all, it was a fun weekend. Thanks to Linda and Jack Kubik for a wonderful tour.

In the front of the museum, there were 8 brand new corvettes ready to be picked up the next day by their new owners. Of course, they were roped off where you couldn't touch them. They had the owners name in front of each. We saw one owner that was already there and he was so

May 21st (Change) AJ Country Café Danville, KY

By Patty, Jimmy Powell and Jack Garabedian

We have had a change of destination for the May 21 trip due to the bridge being out at Kennedy's at Herrington Lake.

So we are going instead to AJ's Country Cafe in Danville for lunch. It has plenty of parking. It does, however, have only 1 men's restroom and 1 women's restroom. Therefore, we will be stopping for a 25 minute "McBreak" in Lancaster before we get to Danville, which is only about 20 minutes away.

We will leave at 10:00 from the McDonald's at Brannon Crossing.

Hope to see "you all" there!

May 20th The Annual Masserati Mingle Downtown Lexington (non-club event)

By Jack Garabedian

Friday, in the Courthouse Square at 120 & 150 N. Limestone, Lexington, KY. Show time is 5:30 pm to 9:00 pm. The event is free to the public with cars, food, and entertainment. If you attended last year you know we had a wet and wonderful time. We displayed 59 vehicles comprised of 24 different makes. They ranged from a 1930 Ford Model A to a 2015 Lamborghini Huracan. It made for a great display.

Ken Hold is looking for an assortment of classic, sports, and luxury cars. There is no cost to have your car in the show. Cars do not need to be concurs prepped, but need to be in display condition. Cars will be positioned between 4:30 pm and 5:30 pm. Let me know if you would like to display your car at this event.
