October 15th Fannin Automotive Family Museum and Diner Ashland, KY

By Patricia Powell

What a grand day for driving! Beautiful day. Even met some Model A guys who were touring that day also before we left McDonald's on our trip to Ashland, KY. Even though we had only 5 cars, we had a beautiful drive. Lauren saw two cows on a porch, which most of us missed. Jim and Charlie, both driving their El Caminos, saw more El Caminos in various states of repair.

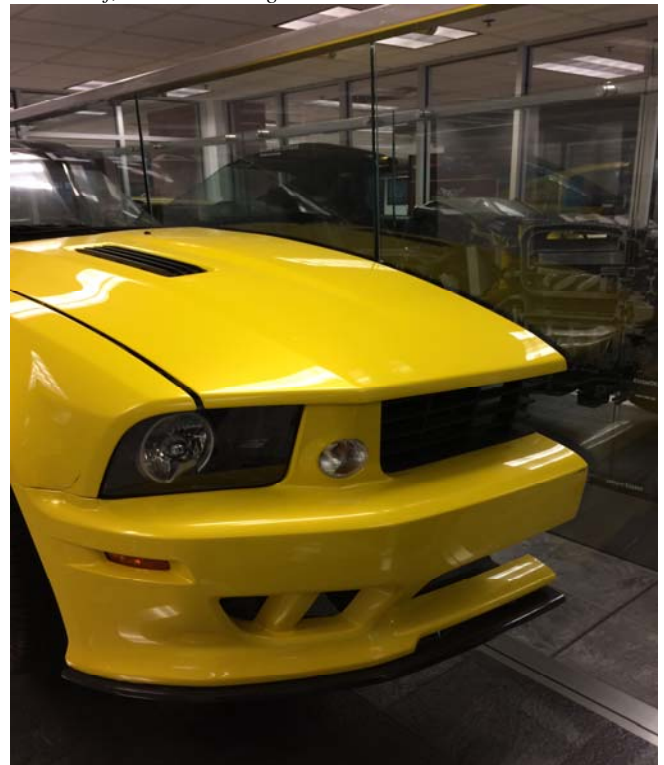

After the "Fast and Furious" back road trip to Owingsville, KY, we proceeded to Fannin's Car Dealership in Ashland, KY. Beautiful and Huge! The Diner is on the top floor of the Dealership, but there is much to see before you get on the elevator to it. There are cars, cars, and more cars, as well as even some jungle animals of all forms (except alive of course). There is a museum of cars, and there are pedal cars, a custom Corvette, and even a car cut in half, a Saleen Mustang, which was awesome to see.

That would have been enough, but then The Diner.....so cute! And delicious homemade food, including the peanut butter cheesecake, which Ray and Mary Anne tried, and the Banana Pudding which Charlie and Brant tried.

Only 5 cars, but a FULL day of driving, eating and cars! Thanks, Jack and Janet, for the trip!

Notes from the President

By Phil Schneider

This issue has the flyer for our Christmas dinner in it. They need a reply by the 14th. You will also notice a place for suggestions for our tours next year. We are going to try and set our schedule for next year at the dinner. This way more people will be there so maybe we can get some new people to lead some tours. We need suggestions for day tours and overnights.

Charlie Simpson and I will be calling folks in the next few weeks looking for candidates for office next year. We need three offices plus three board members. Terms are for two years and none of the positions require much time. Please consider running as we need some new people and new ideas.

BE SURE AND VOTE ON THE 8TH.
