February 22, Leono's Restaurant, Cynthiana

By Phil and Lo Schneider

On a sunny Saturday February morning 18 members (anxious to get on the road) met at McDonalds at Newtown Pike and I-75 for the first tour of the year. We took a fairly direct route and ended at Leono's Restaurant in Cynthiana.

Many of us had never eaten there and were in for treat. Several of us got either the lasagna or a spaghetti topped with lots of pizza toppings. Everything we saw looked delicious, especially Reda's pizza and Herman and Nancy's sandwiches.

It was wonderful to visit with everyone as it always is. Thanks Carolyn and Charlie for a great tour.

25 Years Ago (February 1995)

The monthly tour was a Mystery Tour led by Jim Fetting and Joe Vice.

Mystery #1 – Where are we going?

Mystery #2 – David Estes had a flat tire. A gas station was close by.

Mystery #3 – Upon arrival, Lee and Bill Baker were already there, at Spindletop.

Mystery #4 – How old is Mary Fetting? A birthday cake was presented. Squeek & Sharon were not wearing their name badges.

Mystery #5 – All of the ladies were presented with a long-stem rose by Jim and Joe for Valentine's Day.

15 Years Ago (February 2005)

February 5, we had a Potluck Lunch and Bingo at the Palomar Club House, set up by Barbara and David Estes. Karla Kirk and Jerry Gilbreath were the big bingo winners.

We lost long-time members Eugene Jefferson and William Sudduth.

New members Crystal and Norman Smith of Winchester were welcomed.

10 Years Ago (February 2010)

First tour of the season was to Homemade Ice Cream and Pie in Shelbyville led by Phil Schneider and Lo Arnold. AACA celebrates 75 years.

5 Years Ago (February 2015)

First road trip of the year was for lunch at Lil's Coffee House in Paris. The tour was laid out by Herman and Nancy Butler. 24 members traveled with the group.

The newsletter featured photos of club members with their cars courtesy of Jack Garabedian.

For the February tour, we had a beautiful day and a good turnout. It was good to see our club members again. We missed not having Luther and Nannie Fritts with us. I have some good news that Nannie is doing better and hoping she can get her strength back so she can go home with home healthcare. Also, Roger Hatton is in Cardinal Hill in rehab.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the ones who are having health issues.

I hope you can join us for our March 21 tour. Mary Ellen Lutz is putting together a nice tour with lunch at Blue Licks State Park. See more details in the newsletter.

Hope to see you on the road.

March 21, Blue Licks State Park, Carlisle

We will meet at McDonald's in Paris, 101 Reinhold St. We will leave at 10:30 a.m. for lunch at Blue Licks State Park in Carlisle. Mary Ellen Lutz will lead the tour.
