bluegrass countryside. We saw magnificent horse farms and estates. We passed three distilleries.

There were 15 members including a new couple, Dale and Edie Torok, friends of Tony and Beth Dehner. We only had three antique cars as there was still salt on the roads but, hopefully, in our March tour to Cynthiana, the antique cars will come out of the garages and hit the road. We had a wonderful lunch at the Sage Restaurant in Frankfort.

Thanks to Lo and Phil for a wonderful tour.

Would anyone believe that on our February tour we would have a temperature of 70 degrees; no snow or rain! Well believe it; for that is exactly what we had. What a beautiful drive through parking area available in front of the restaurant. This business is a featured stop in the Kentucky Back Road Restaurant & Recipe book. They offer hand crafted sandwiches, salads, crepes, hot brown, desserts and a soda fountain. We were quite pleased with our meal on our "trial run".

We have arranged a guided tour of the National Corvette Museum for Sunday morning at 10 am ET. The special group rate will be $6 per person and we (the Kubiks) will be collecting that fee before the museum tour because we must pay as a group to ensure that price. Lunch is conveniently available in the Corvette Café located in the museum if you would like to eat before heading out for home. They offer a variety of grill items, soup, salads and a soda fountain.

More details are being put in place but we are hopeful that this will be a relaxing and fun way to spend an overnight tour as we experience the beginning of the spring season. Please plan to join us!

We will meet at McDonalds in Northpark Shopping Center (Corner of New Circle Road and Russell Cave Road) we will leave at 10:00 AM.

April 9th & 10th Overnight Tour to the National Corvette Museum in Bowling Green KY

By Jack and Linda Kubik

We have planned the spring overnight tour for the weekend of April 9-10, 2016. We will meet at the McDonald’s at Palomar Center with a planned departure of 9:00 am. We will take our time touring to Bowling Green on Saturday with several stops along the way. The tour of the National Corvette Museum will take place on Sunday morning followed by lunch in the Corvette Café before departing for home.

Hotel reservations can be made by calling:

The Sleep Inn
185 Greenwood Lane
270.842.3800

Be sure to ask for the special group rate for the Bluegrass AACA (block of rooms will be held until March 31st for the discount rate).

King and Double Queen accommodations will be available for the same price of $79.99 before tax, $90.94 including tax. All rooms will have a small fridge, microwave and coffee maker. A complimentary hot breakfast is offered at the hotel and there is also an indoor pool and hot tub available.

Lunch Saturday has been arranged in Greensburg, KY at the The Longhunters Coffee & Tea Company. It is located in a renovated hardware store in the town square and has a public
